Socratic Seminar/Fish Bowl Discussion Questions

*Directions: On a sheet of paper answer the following questions. For each question below, make sure to include evidence in the text to support your answer. (Include page #'s, paragraphs, sentences, etc.)

---

1. Is the ending conclusive (certain) or sort of open? Why?
2. What do you think happened when Rainsford woke up?
3. Is Zaroff crazy? Why or why not?
4. How are the two men (Rainsford and Zaroff) similar?
5. In what ways can the word "game" referred to in the title be interpreted? Explain your answer using the text. Does one or another interpretation fit better with the story?
6. Did Rainsford beat Zaroff or did Zaroff's overconfidence bring out his own defeat? What evidence supports your position?
7. Is man the most dangerous game to hunt or his hunting the most dangerous game man can play?
8. Does everyone follow the rules of the game? Are there any cheaters? Do rules count if only one person knows them?
